

Memorial Book

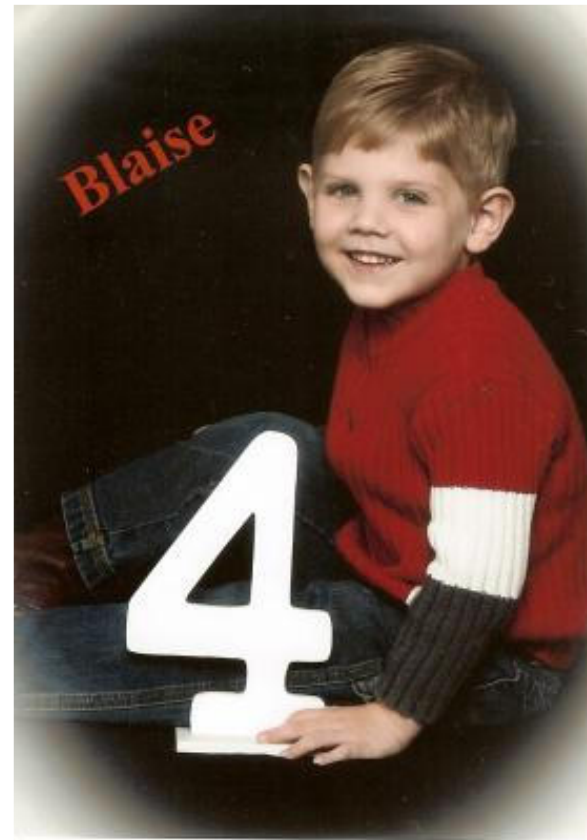

In Loving Memory of

Michael "Blaise" Landry
(January 29, 2005 - April 10, 2009)

The dead cannot cry out for justice; it is a duty of the living to do so for them.

Lois McMaster Bujold

Michael "Blaise" Landry

Four wonderful years you were here, now my eyes fill with tears. My baby boy is alone in heaven, his new home. Never again will I see that cute little smile he would give me. This pain in my heart is so bad, I feel as if I'm going mad. I hear your voice in the night and close my eyes as your face comes to sight. No more little feet hitting the floor or the sound of your tiger roar. LSU will never be the same, it has lost its No. 1 fan, and we have lost our little man. God, one day we will understand how this little angel on earth went so soon, to be your angel in the promised land.

Michael "Blaise" Landry died Friday, April 10, 2009 at Pointe Coupee General Hospital in New Roads after being mauled in his own yard by his neighbors three Boxers. He was born on Jan. 29, 2005. He was 4 years old and a resident of Morganza, Louisiana. Survived by his loving parents, Robert A. Landry and Tammy Weber Landry of Morganza and older brother, Devin Taylor Landry.

Since this horrific tragedy there has been a Louisiana Act passed known as: The Luna McDaniel and Michael "Blaise" Landry ACT No. 199

This beautiful innocent child's legacy will live on forever and hopefully not only protect but provide justice for other victims of dog bites and maimings.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The word "Gallery" is written in a white, elegant cursive font, centered horizontally and partially overlapping the roses.

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, mottled background of warm, earthy tones, including shades of beige, tan, and light brown. The overall aesthetic is soft and elegant.

Condolences

from the deepest of our hearts...

Thank you, Tammy, for sharing your precious memories of your precious little boy with so many of us. My thoughts and prayers are often with you, Robert, and Devon, and particularly so this holiday season. I came across the little prayer below and thought I'd send it your way:

May God always grant you.....for every storm a rainbow, for every tear a smile, for every care a promise and a blessing in each trial. For every problem life may send, a faithful friend to share, for every sigh a sweet song, and an answer for each prayer.

Love you,

Donna Lee

Those we once held in our arms, we will hold forever in our hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, this first Christmas and always. GOD BLESS

Love you,

Aunt Cammie and Uncle James

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, mottled background of warm, earthy tones like beige and light brown. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, with delicate shading on their petals.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Kelbie Landry

Blaise, I'll never forget u baby. how could anyone forget those big blue eyes of yours and that beautiful smile u always had. u touched my life and everyone elses. and the day we lost u was the worst day of my life. i think about u all the time and cry thinking of the memories i had with u. they were all wonderful but i wish i could have had many more. u were the best child ever and since the day u were born i always said i wanted a little boy just like u i hope i get that little boy someday. i love u blaise and miss you more than anything my little angel!

Aunt Cammie

Blaise, I remember how much you love LSU just wanted you to know they are going to play in the Capital One Bowl. I know its not as good as the Sugar Bowl, but we will still take it.

GEAUX TIGERS Love you Sweetie

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open rose with many layers of petals. The roses are rendered in a slightly darker shade of the background color, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

Life Story

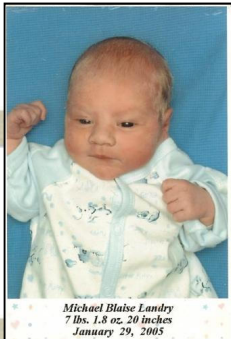

every hour, every thought, every smile...

July 23, 2004

Ultrasound showed it's going to be another wonderful boy, could not wait to tell Devin he was going to have a little brother. The nurse printed out this picture for us to give to Devin and he has proudly held on to it ever since.
